ABOUT ME

Sarah Sanders has over 15 years in marketing and advertising experience. Prior to joining the Osborne Team, Sarah worked in the health care industry in San Francisco, where she supported a multi-functional team with product positioning and new product launch strategies. She joined Robb Osborne in 2005 working as a Marketing Specialist. Her primary job is to provide essential transactional assistance to the Team through collaboration with clients, partners and vendors. She project manages the day-to-day operations of the team to offer clients a seamless experience and enhance overall business. She also manages all Team marketing and advertising initiatives to promote new business and increase market visibility. From inception to adulthood, she maintains client relationships by coordinating feasibility meetings, supplying up-to-date market research, property valuations, contract preparation and final transaction completion.
